The customer is responsible for the return shipping costs if the return is discretionary. The seller will pay the return shipment if the error is on the side of the seller. We basically try to treat our customers in the way we would like to be treated. Finally, we do our best to meet all requests for modifications to an order, but during the run of textbooks at the beginning of the semester, sometimes it is all we can do to keep up with orders and emails - even with all of us who work 15 hours a day! Therefore, it is not always possible to make changes to an order. We work so much because we know how important it is to have a textbook for lessons. We spend every day, sometimes twice. That said, please note that we are not always able to receive books in advance. Often we just get to you right in time and time. Your books should never be late. If a book is late, something happened, and we need to figure out what. I look forward to serving you! Responsive Policy I gladly accept returns until 14 days after receiving the item. I'm not a member of the reception! This policy is in line with the policy of abebooks. The reason I have such a strict 14-day policy is because textbooks and codes are one of the fastest objects on the planet. The price can go down drastically and very quickly. If you are returning an article because of my mistake, know that I will take care of you entirely. I will provide the funds for the return shipment and I will do everything possible to solve the problem you are having. If you are returning a book because of a factor on your own end, here is my policy: You are free to return a book for a refund for any reason within 14 days of receipt.
